Journalism Scholarship Application for Academic Year 2017-2018

Please complete all parts of this application as legibly as possible. Scan all documents & submit as a single PDF form, including your personal statement, work experience in journalism, & service to the department. Provide links to examples of your work in journalism, send all by email to: jourschl@uark.edu by 4 p.m., Feb. 17, 2017.

1. Name	2. Student ID
Last First M Local Address	Cell/Local Phone
Parents' Address	Email Address
, 	Parents' Phone
3. Undergraduates only (Check one):	4. Academic Level in fall 2017 (Check one):
Ad/PRBroadcast New	s/EdSophomoreJuniorSenior Graduate Student
Engl/JourJour/PlscDoubl	e Mjr
Cumulative GPA as of end of fall 2016:	Journalism Courses Completed by end of fall 2016:
All courseworkJournalis	m only
5. This scholarship should apply to which semester(s):  (Must be full-time student in semester of award you plan to graduate in either semester & will full-time student please note that on this applied. Both fall 2017 and spring 2018 semester	not be a cation)
Fall 2017 onlySpring 2018	EAESA Application Voc No
7. Statement by Applicant: I plan to enroll as a full student in the Journalism Department for the semester(s) indicated in #5. I understand and agr following: (a) I must maintain (at the least) the cur GPA according to the awarded scholarship. (b) If a scholarship for both fall and spring semesters, and enroll for the spring semester, my scholarship for semester is forfeited; it cannot be carried over to a subsequent semester. (c) If notified of a scholarshi I must attend the department's awards event or fo scholarship. (d) You will receive an email sometime summer from the Dean's Office (Carl Riley) with the and address of your donor(s) to write a thank-your forfeit the scholarship.	ree to the mulative warded a l I do not that p award, rfeit the e during the name independent explaining your choice of journalism as a major and your career goals.  A list of your work experience in journalism (e.g., campus publications/organizations, UATV, KXUA, internships, summer work, etc.)  Submit Link(s) to your Journalism-Related Work, that displays your journalistic ability.  Service you have contributed to the j-department and its programs (e.g., J-Days committees; student organization projects that assist the department (e.g., PRSSA, SPJ, Ad Club, etc.) will be weighed. Participation in indepartment programs (events is considered an indicator)
	NOTE: Financial need may be considered in granting scholarships. If you have extraordinary financial need, please write a statement, place it in an envelope and mark it "Financial Need Statement." Be sure to put your
Signature of Applicant Date	name on the document and envelope. Submit it to Prof.